Physical Activity Release

Camp activities include, but are not limited to, hiking, swimming, low and high Koinonia Adventure course activities, canoeing, horseback riding, archery, and paintball adventure games. There are risks of physical injury or harm from participating in high adventure activities. I voluntarily elect to participate in the activities and assume the risks of injury or harm that could result from participation. On my own behalf and that of my personal representatives and heirs, I hereby release Koinonia Camp its officers, employees, and agents from all liability for any injury or harm to me (or my minor) from participating in said activities; whether the injury or harm is caused by the negligence of Koinonia Camper otherwise. I have read and understood this release of liability.

Participation in the physical aspects of any or all outdoor initiatives is absolutely voluntary. I acknowledge the fact that not all of the stresses and hazards connected with the activities can be foreseen. Some of the specific hazards I might encounter include slipping and falling on trails, bumps, bruises, cuts, scrapes, insect stings, poison ivy, sprains, or other injuries. Facilitators will take every reasonable precaution to minimize exposure to known risks. I have the personal responsibility to follow all the safety rules and guidelines given to me. I hereby personally assume all risks in connection with the activities and I waive all claims arising out of the guidelines given to me.

I grant for any photographs taken during the experience to be used by Koinonia Camp & Conference Center for promotional or other purposes.
